

6516205989.txt

The service that XM radio provides is invaluable for people who are traveling. Please do not in any way restrict XM's ability to broadcast the weather and/or road conditions. This is a safety factor. To be able to receive this type of information without having to scan for local radio stations allows the driver of any vehicle to keep their mind focused on the driving and not on attempting to find what is available in the way of traffic and weather.